Lucy Lennon is a *cashier at a big drugstore in Stanford, California. People can buy medicine at the drugstore. They can buy makeup, shampoo, watches, candy, and many other things, too. They pay [the things / buy / Ms. Lennon / they / for].

At the drugstore people can also buy tickets for the California State *Lottery. They pay one dollar (①) a lottery ticket. There are pictures on the ticket. Some pictures are winning pictures, and some pictures are losing pictures. Most people win (②). Some people win two dollars. A [win / thousands / people / of / lucky / dollars / few].

One day Ms. Lennon was (③) at the drugstore. She sold three lottery tickets to a woman. The woman looked at the pictures on the tickets. Then she (④ throw) the tickets on the counter and walked away. "These are (⑤) tickets," she thought.

Ms. Lennon picked up the tickets and looked at them. She was (⑥ surprise). Then she was excited. One ticket was a (⑦) ticket!

"Excuse me!" Ms. Lennon called to the woman. " A !"

The woman walked back (⑧) the counter. She took the winning ticket and looked at it. "You're right," she said. " B ." The woman walked away slowly, (⑨) shock. Then she turned around. " C ," she said to Ms. Lennon.

Why did Ms. Lennon give the woman the ticket? Why didn't she keep the ticket? Didn't she want the $50,000?

③ "Of course I wanted the money," Ms. Lennon said. " D . It wasn't my ticket."

Ms. Lennon telephoned her mother and told her about the ticket.

" E that you aren't rich," her mother said. " F that you're honest."
