6 次の英文を読んであとの設問に答えなさい。(*のついた単語には注があります)

Some of the largest trees in the world are in California. These are called redwood trees. Redwood National Park is a large forest of redwood trees. Visitors in the park can walk and drive through the forest to look at the trees. Some redwoods are hundreds of years old. These old trees are very tall. They are also very wide at the bottom. One tree has a large hole in the bottom. The hole is so big you can drive a car through it.

In Scotland, there once were large forests. Over the years the forests became smaller. People cut down the trees to use the wood for heating or building. They used the land for farming. But after a while the land was not good for farming. It became rocky because the earth was washed away by the rain. There were no trees to hold the earth in place. Now the Scottish government is planting new trees. These new forests look nice and green. They also will help improve* the earth for the future.

Large forests are important for us in many ways. They give us wood for building and heating. They are a home for many kinds of plants and animals. And for many city people, forests are a place to go for a vacation. People can learn about nature there. They can breathe* fresh air and sleep in a quiet place. But there is one more reason why forests are important for everyone. The leaves on the trees in a forest help clean the air. Dirty air is a problem in many parts of the world. Without our forests this problem might be much worse.

I was in a train and a big, heavy man got in. He was wearing an old blue suit. He ⁽¹⁰⁾[sit] down on the other side and closed his eyes. I could see his face very easily, and so I began to read his thoughts.

He was thinking of a big woman (え) fat red arms. She was not at all pretty. Perhaps she was his wife. He was going to put something into her food when she was not watching him.

I was afraid. I did not want to see any more of this. But the man's eyes were still ⁽¹¹⁾[shut], and I could not turn my head away from the picture above his head. I looked again and I saw a date. The date was February 12th. He was making a plan to kill his wife on Saturday February 12th!

The man opened his eyes and I looked quickly out (お) the window. I was very troubled. Men often think of bad things, but ⁽¹²⁾they do not always do them. Was this man going to kill his wife? The picture which I saw above his head ⁽¹³⁾was very clear; but I could not be sure. What should I do?
